

Laboratory Diagnosis of Haematological Malignancies 2018

24 October 2018 | 1 America Square, London

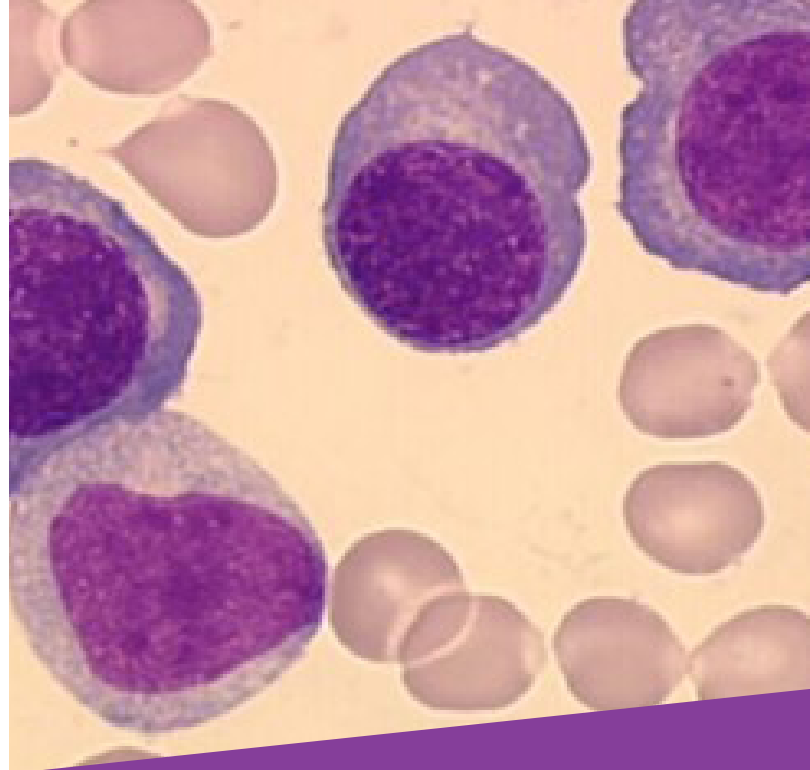

Scientific Organisers: Ricardo Morilla (The Royal Marsden Hospital) & Dr Ulrika Johansson (Bristol Royal Infirmary)

This meeting is for laboratory staff and clinicians in the fields of flow cytometry, cytogenetic and molecular biology looking to obtain more accurate and reliable results, this meeting will consist of a number of informative, educational talks full of information to take back to the workplace as well as an exhibition of leading companies in the field.

£80 Member | £95 Non-Member | £60 Student

Royal Microscopical Society

For more information go to:
www.rms.org.uk/lab-diagnosis-2018

@RoyalMicroSoc

The Programme

24 October 2018 | I America Square, London

- 09:00 Registration
- 10:00 Measurement of Uncertainty and ISO 15189 -
Katy Sanchez, Viapath
- 10:35 Interesting cases presentation - Stephen Couzens, University of Wales, College of Medicine
- 11:20 Myeloma & B-LPD MRD - Ricardo Morilla
- 12:00 Lunch and Exhibition
- 13:00 Cytogenetics in Haemato-oncology diagnosis &
prognosis - Julie Howard-Reeves, The Institute of Cancer Research
- 13.45 Measurable Residual Disease for decision making in Acute Myeloid Leukemia - Sylvie Freeman, University of Birmingham
- 14:30 Coffee and exhibition
- 15:10 T-cell phenotypes - Dan Payne, Leicester Royal Infirmary
- 15:50 Adoptive Cellular Therapy for treatment of haematological malignancies - Emma Nicholson, Royal Marsden Hospital
- 16:30 Closing remarks
- 17:00 Drinks receptions
- 18:00 Meeting ends

For more information go to:
www.rms.org.uk/lab-diagnosis-2018

@RoyalMicroSoc